SUBJECT: SECOND CHANCE ACT GRANT-ADULT MENTORING AND TRANSITIONAL SERVICES

The U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), recently announced the availability of up to $300,000 in grant funds under the Second Chance Act Adult Mentoring and Transitional Services for Successful Reentry Program. The Second Chance Act provides services and programs to help facilitate the successful reintegration of offenders as they return to their communities. The specific objective of this grant opportunity is to recruit and train individuals as mentors and match them with participants in pre- and post-release services.

Applicants are limited to nonprofit organizations and federally recognized Indian tribes. Organizations that have current Second Chance Mentoring Program grants from the BJA are eligible to apply for new funding under this grant opportunity.

Applications are due March 21, 2013. For more information on this grant opportunity and its requirements, refer to the Second Chance Act grant announcement.
