

Get Connected

Participate in a job club to expand your network, receive one-on-one résumé assistance, sign up for a workshop, or attend a career fair.

You can also connect with employers by using available computers with Internet access at your local job center to apply for jobs online or update your résumé.

Get Resources

The EDD provides tools and resources for job seekers at no cost. Most job centers offer:

- Information about job fairs and events.
- Access to Internet, phones, printers, copiers, and fax machines.
- Various workshops to help you maximize your job search results.
- Community resources and referrals for training and other services.
- Computers to browse for jobs, create résumés, and apply for openings.

To find a job center near you, call the America's Service Locator toll-free at 1-877-US2-JOBS (1-877-872-5627), or TTY at 1-877-889-5627, or visit www.americasjobcenter.ca.gov.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

LABOR WORKFORCE AND DEVELOPMENT AGENCY

EMPLOYMENT DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

The EDD is an equal opportunity employer/program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. Requests for services, aids, and/or alternate formats need to be made by calling 916-654-7799 (voice). TTY users, please call the California Relay Services at 711.

Find Your Career
in Your Next Job

EDD Employment
Development
Department
State of California

Get Help

The Employment Development Department (EDD) offers a variety of services to meet your job search needs. Career specialists are available to assist you in getting appropriate resources.

Get up-to-date information about your local area on the fastest growing occupations and the highest paying jobs. The EDD offers a wide variety of labor market information that can help you make an informed decision for a new career.

Get a Job

CalJOBSSM gives you immediate access to thousands of job listings 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. In addition to searching for jobs, CalJOBSSM also allows you to:

- Develop and post your résumé.
- Access employment and training resources.
- Create cover letters for prospective employers using available templates.
- View upcoming events in your local job center.
- Keep track of your appointments.
- Set up and manage automatic job alerts.

Looking for training?

If you're looking to upgrade your skills, then register with CalJOBSSM to access a list of training providers and courses within your area. Check with your local job center for training information and financial aid opportunities.

Looking for more resources?

The EDD offers a variety of programs and services for all California job seekers. To find information about services that may benefit you, visit the following:

- www.edd.ca.gov
- www.caljobs.ca.gov
- www.labormarketinfo.edd.ca.gov

Other Programs and Services

As part of the America's Job Center of CaliforniaSM network, the EDD also offers programs and services for qualifying job seekers. Qualifying job seekers include:

- Youth
- Veterans
- People with disabilities
- Senior workers
- Ex-offenders
- High school drop-outs
- Migrant and seasonal farmworkers
- Limited or non-English speaking individuals
- And more

Programs and services may vary by area. Check with your local job center.