Please note: Due to closure, the Capitola and El Centro offices have been removed from the Self-Service Offices section on page 1. Also, in the Meals and Lodging table on page 12, in the “3-Meals Per Day” column for 2013, the amount of $10.90 has been changed to $10.85. Lastly, a correction was made on page 72 in the Taxable Wage section changing the SDI tax on any one employee from $1,067.00 to $1,008.80. We regret any inconvenience this may have caused.
Unemployment Insurance (UI)
The UI taxable wage limit for 2013 is $7,000 per employee. The UI tax rate for new employers is 3.4 percent (.034) for a period of two to three years.* The UI tax rate for experienced employers varies based on each employer’s experience and the balance in the UI Fund. Employers will receive a notice at the end of the year notifying them of their new UI rate for the upcoming year. The 2013 UI maximum weekly benefit award is $450. Please refer to page 9 for additional information.

Employment Training Tax (ETT)
The 2013 ETT rate is 0.1 percent (.001) on the first $7,000 of each employee’s wages.* Please refer to page 9 for additional information.

State Disability Insurance (SDI)
The 2013 SDI withholding rate which includes Disability Insurance (DI) and Paid Family Leave (PFL) is 1.0 percent (.01).* The SDI taxable wage limit is $100,880 per employee, per year. The 2013 maximum weekly DI/PFL benefit award is $1,067. Please refer to page 9 for additional information.

California Personal Income Tax (PIT) Withholding
You are not required to withhold PIT from your household employees’ wages. However, if you agree to withhold PIT for any of your household employees, PIT withholding is based on the amount of wages paid, the number of withholding allowances claimed by the employee, and the payroll period. Please refer to pages 9 and 10 for additional information.

*UI, ETT, and SDI rate information is available on our 24-hour automated call system at 916-653-7795.

What’s New in 2013?
Beginning with the 2013 Household Employer’s Guide (DE 8829), the Employment Development Department (EDD) will no longer be automatically mailing a paper copy to all household employers. If you wish to continue to receive a paper copy each December/January, you must go online at https://eddservices.edd.ca.gov and submit a request for the annual mailing.

Beginning on January 1, 2013 - recent federal legislation now defines an individual as a rehire if the employer/employee relationship has ended and the returning individual had been separated from that same employer for at least 60 consecutive days. Be sure to report them on your Report of New Employees(s) (DE 34).

The SDI Online is available to employers, claimants, physicians/practitioners, and voluntary plan third-party administrators to securely submit Disability Insurance (DI) and Paid Family Leave (PFL) claim information. Refer to the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/disability or page 63 for additional information about SDI Online.

Hot Topics
Fraud Prevention, Detection, and Reporting – For information on how to prevent and detect UI fraud, see page 65. Improper payment of Unemployment Insurance (UI) benefits is a serious problem that has a financial impact on employers and can result in higher UI taxes to all employers. You can help by responding timely to requests for wage information. To learn more, go to www.edd.ca.gov/Unemployment/Responding_to_UI_Claim_Notices.htm.

Dear Household Employer:

The opportunity to save time and money is more important than ever in this unpredictable economy, and there is no exception when it comes to managing your payroll tax account. With this in mind, the Employment Development Department (EDD) continues to offer tools to produce savings in these areas.

Therefore, in March 2012, the EDD upgraded e-Services for Business to include the ability to use smart phones and tablets. This increased flexibility will allow you to reduce costs associated with managing your payroll tax account on paper, and give you the freedom and mobility to connect anytime and anywhere, in an online environment that is faster than before.

Enrollment is fast and easy at https://eddservices.edd.ca.gov. You can view an online tutorial to see just how simple getting started can be at http://www.edd.ca.gov/payroll_taxes/e-Services_for_business_tutorials.htm. With accessibility 24 hours a day, 7-days a week, e-Services for Business is always there for you.

Another way you can save money is by avoiding potential reporting errors which may result in possible fees or penalties. You can do this by taking advantage of “no-cost” seminars which are offered online or in a classroom-style setting. Both are designed to educate you about your tax reporting responsibilities. Online seminars allow you to learn at your own pace and on your own time. Classroom-style seminars are available in a wide variety of locations throughout California and audience participation is encouraged by the instructors. Register at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Tax_Seminars/.

If you pay wages to people who work in or around your home, you may be considered a household employer. Your household employment may take place in a variety of settings, such as a:

- House
- Apartment
- Boat or mobile home
- Summer or winter home
- Condominium
- Local college club
- Local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority
- Hotel room (when the worker is employed by you, not the hotel)

Private homes include fixed places of residence, apartments, and hotel rooms in which an individual or family resides. Private homes do not include premises used primarily as a business enterprise, such as a residential care home, boarding house, or hospital.

Examples of workers who should be considered household employees are listed on page 8.

When you have paid $750 in cash wages in a calendar quarter to people who work in or around your home as your employees, you have 15 days to register with the Employment Development Department (EDD). (Refer to the examples on page 4 to help you determine when to register.)

Register online using the EDD’s e-Services for Business at https://eddservices.edd.ca.gov.

You can also register with the EDD by completing a Registration Form for Employers of Household Workers (DE 1HW) at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de1hw.pdf.

There are two types of household employers: Annual and Quarterly. Refer to page 14 to help you determine if you should register as an annual or a quarterly household employer.

Once registered, the EDD will send you wage reporting forms each quarter. The four quarters in a year are:

WHEN SHOULD YOU REGISTER AS AN EMPLOYER?

You must register with the EDD as a household employer for California payroll tax purposes when you have paid cash wages totaling $750 or more in one calendar quarter to one or more people who work as employees in or around your home.

The amount of wages you pay in a calendar quarter will determine the payroll taxes you are required to withhold and pay.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>If You Pay (in a Quarter)</th>
<th>Then</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>$750 to $999.99*</td>
<td>Withhold State Disability Insurance (SDI).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>$1,000 or more</td>
<td>Withhold SDI. In addition, pay Unemployment Insurance (UI) and Employment Training Tax (ETT).</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

*If wages fall below $750 in a following quarter, you must continue to withhold SDI from your employees’ wages through the remainder of the current year and through the following calendar year.

If wages fall below $1,000 in a following quarter, you must continue to withhold SDI from your employees’ wages and pay UI and ETT through the remainder of the current year and through the following calendar year.

Cash wages include both checks and cash. Do not include noncash wages, such as meals and lodging, when calculating whether you have reached $750 in cash wages. For a complete definition of cash and noncash wages, refer to “What Are Wages?” on page 11.

The following examples will help you decide when you must register with the EDD, begin reporting employee wages and withholdings, and paying payroll taxes:

</tr>
<tr>

You are required to report employee wages that are subject to California Personal Income Tax (PIT), but you are not required to withhold PIT unless you and your employee(s) agree that you will do so. Refer to page 11 for information regarding PIT wages and page 10 for information on PIT withholding.

Notes:
- The 2013 withholding rate for the State Disability Insurance (SDI) is 1.0 percent (.01). The rate may change each year. The EDD notifies employers of the new rate each December.
- The maximum SDI tax amount is $1,008.80 per employee for the calendar year.
- PIT is withheld based on each employee’s Withholding Allowance Certificate (Form W-4 or DE 4) and the withholding schedules in the California Employer’s Guide (DE 44), available by calling the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886. The schedules are also on the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Rates_and_Withholding.htm.
Withholding California Personal Income Tax

If a household employee wishes to have California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withheld from his or her wages and you agree to withhold it, you need to report and send the PIT withheld to the EDD.

To have California PIT withheld, your employee(s) must complete a federal Employee’s Withholding Allowance Certificate (Form W-4) or state Employee’s Withholding Allowance Certificate (DE 4). You can refer your employee(s) to the online calculator at www.taxes.ca.gov/de4.pdf, which prints the DE 4 after calculating the withholding allowances.

The PIT withholding schedules are located on the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Rates_and_Withholding.htm and are available in the California Employer’s Guide (DE 44) at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de44.pdf.

To order a paper DE 4 or DE 44, access the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/Forms/default.asp or call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886. Meals and lodging are excluded from PIT wages and withholding if you provide meals and lodging to your employee(s) because it is convenient for you and:

- Meals are furnished on your premises and/or

- Lodging is furnished on your premises and is required as a condition of employment.

Example: A governess lives and eats meals in your home so she can take care of your children. The value of the meals and lodging would not be considered PIT wages, and PIT would not be withheld because the meals and lodging are furnished on your premises for your convenience. However, it would be included in total subject wages reported on the Employer of Household Worker(s) Quarterly Report of Wages and Withholdings (DE 3BHW) for Annual Household Employers and on the Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (Continuation) (DE 9C) for Quarterly Household Employers. For additional information, download the Information Sheet: Personal Income Tax Wages Reported on the Quarterly Report of Wages and Withholdings for Employers of Household Workers (DE 3BHW) (DE 231PH) at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de231ph.pdf.

If the value of meals and lodging is considered PIT wages, these amounts must be added to the cash wages paid to your workers before computing the amount of PIT to withhold. Refer to the “Values of Meals and Lodging” tables on page 12 to determine the cash value to report, or go online at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Rates_and_Withholding.htm.

An employee’s calendar year total for PIT wages should agree with the amount reported in Box 16 on the employee’s Wage and Tax Statement (Form W-2). For additional information on Form W-2, refer to page 54. The PIT wages are reported separately from subject wages on the quarterly wage reports (DE 3BHW or DE 9C) that you file with the EDD. While household employers are not required to withhold PIT, they are required to report PIT wages.
Wages are all payments made to employees for personal services, whether paid by check, cash, or the reasonable cash value of noncash payments, such as meals and lodging. The method of payment and the frequency of the work do not change the taxability of wages paid to employees. Whether the employment is full-time, part-time, casual, or temporary, the taxability of wages paid to employees does not change. In addition, how employees are paid does not change the employer’s responsibility for payroll taxes.

If you pay your employees’ share of Social Security, Medicare, and/or State Disability Insurance (SDI) without deducting the amounts from their wages, these payments may also be wages. For more information, refer to page 25 or to the Information Sheet: Social Security/Medicare/SDI Taxes Paid by an Employer (DE 231Q). It is available by accessing the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de231q.pdf. You may also call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886 for assistance.

What Does “Subject Wages” Mean?

Generally, all wages are considered subject wages and are used to determine the amount of Unemployment Insurance (UI), SDI, and Paid Family Leave (PFL) benefits a claimant should receive. Subject wages are the full amount of wages paid to an employee, regardless of the UI and SDI taxable wage limits. Refer to the inside cover for 2013 taxable wage limits.

What Are Personal Income Tax (PIT) Wages?

Personal Income Tax (PIT) wages are cash and noncash payments subject to state income tax. (Wages that must be reported on an individual’s California income tax return are PIT wages.) Most payments for household employees’ services should be reported as PIT wages (for more information regarding PIT wages, refer to page 10). An employee’s calendar year total for PIT wages should agree with the amount reported on the employee’s federal Wage and Tax Statement (Form W-2) in Box 16 (state wages, tips, etc.). Household employers are not required to withhold PIT; however, they are required to report PIT wages for each household employee.

What Is the Difference Between Subject Wages and PIT Wages?

In most situations, subject wages and PIT wages are the same. However, subject wages and PIT wages are reported separately on your EDD quarterly wage report.

For additional information, refer to the following information sheets:

These forms are available on the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Forms_and_Publications.htm, or you may also call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886 for assistance.
Values of Meals and Lodging

Meals and lodging provided to employees are wages. If your employees are covered under a contract of employment or union agreement, the taxable value of meals and lodging should not be less than the estimated value stated in that document. If the cash value is not stated in an employment contract or union agreement, please use the tables and information below to determine the value of the meals and/or lodging you provide to your employees. If you withhold Personal Income Tax (PIT) from your employees’ wages, please refer to page 10.

ANNUAL HOUSEHOLD EMPLOYERS

Overview

Household employers who pay $20,000 or less in cash and noncash wages in one calendar year may elect to make one yearly payment for all California payroll taxes. You will not automatically be considered an annual household employer. If you do not elect to become an annual household employer, you are a quarterly household employer even if you pay $20,000 or less in wages. If you elect to pay taxes annually, you must still report employee subject wages, Personal Income Tax (PIT) wages, and PIT withholdings quarterly.

Household employers may elect to become annual household employers using one of the following forms:

- Registration Form for Employers of Household Workers (DE 1HW)
  You may elect to become an annual household employer when you register with the EDD by checking the “Yes” box in Item L on the DE 1HW or register online with e-Services for Business at https://eddservices.edd.ca.gov.

- Employer of Household Worker Election Notice (DE 89)
  If you previously registered with the EDD, you may complete the DE 89 and return it to the EDD to become an annual household employer.

As an annual household employer, you must file the following forms:

- Employer of Household Worker(s) Quarterly Report of Wages and Withholdings (DE 3BHW).
- Employer of Household Worker(s) Annual Payroll Tax Return (DE 3HW)
  You must pay your payroll taxes with the DE 3HW.

File online with e-Services for Business at https://eddservices.edd.ca.gov.

Samples of these completed paper forms are provided on the following pages: 7, 16, 18, and 21, respectively.

NOTE: If your total accumulated wages exceed $20,000 during the year, you must notify the EDD immediately to change your filing status to a quarterly household employer. Refer to page 28 for additional information.

Employer of Household Worker Election Notice (DE 89)

Overview

Purpose: To elect the option to pay California payroll taxes annually instead of quarterly. If approved, the election is effective the first day of the calendar year in which the election is filed. If you pay more than $20,000 in accumulated wages in a year, the election will be terminated, and you will be required to file and pay all payroll taxes owed for the year at the end of that calendar quarter.

How to Obtain: The DE 89 is available on the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de89.pdf, or you may call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886.
California law allows certain employers of household workers the option to pay California employment taxes for their household employees annually instead of quarterly. Information on wages paid to employees must still be reported on a quarterly basis on a form provided for this purpose. To be eligible to elect this option, an employer must:

- Be registered with this Department as an employer of household workers.
- Have no delinquent taxes or returns due to the Department.
- Intend to pay $20,000 or less in wages in a calendar year to your household employees. (The sum of all subject wages, cash or noncash, paid to all employees must be no more than $20,000 per year.)

To elect this option, complete the election notice at the bottom of this document and return it to the address indicated. You will be notified in writing of your election approval. If approved, the election is effective the first day of the calendar year in which the election is filed. If you pay more than $20,000 in wages in a year, the election will be terminated and you will be required to file and pay all payroll taxes owed for the year at the end of the calendar quarter.

If you need assistance, call us toll-free at (888) 745-3886 or visit our nearest Employment Tax Office, listed in our Household Employer's Guide (DE 8829) or on our Web site at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/. If you are hearing or speech impaired, please call us at (800) 547-9586.

Please cut and return the bottom portion of this notice to the address below.
You may also fax your election notice to (916) 654-9211.

EMPLOYER OF HOUSEHOLD WORKER ELECTION NOTICE

I am an employer of household workers and wish to elect to pay California employment taxes annually. I intend to pay no more than $20,000 per year in wages to my workers. I understand that if I pay more than $20,000 during the year, the election will be terminated and I will be required to file and pay all payroll taxes owed for the year at the end of that calendar quarter. I will also be required to file quarterly tax returns with payment for the remainder of the year. I will then need to file a new election to be eligible for this program in the future.

Overview

Purpose: Household employers who elect to pay taxes annually use the DE 3BHW to report employee quarterly wages subject to Unemployment Insurance (UI), Employment Training Tax (ETT), State Disability Insurance (SDI) taxes and Personal Income Tax (PIT) wages. If PIT is withheld, that amount is also reported on this form. Even though taxes are paid just once a year, wages must be reported each quarter by state law. For any quarter that you do not have wages, you must still file the report.

Quarterly Report of Wages and Withholdings (DE 3BHW)

Instructions for Paper Filers:

You must file this form even if you did not have payroll. If you did not have payroll, refer to Item B below. Complete all items on the DE 3BHW as follows:

A. For each of the three months in the quarter, enter the number of full-time and part-time employees who worked during or received wages subject to Unemployment Insurance (UI) tax for the payroll period that includes the 12th of the month. If you did not have UI-subject employees for that period, enter zero (0) in the box that applies to that month(s). Blank boxes will be identified as missing information.

B. If you did not have payroll during the quarter, check this box and enter “0” in each of the three boxes in Item A and in the Grand Total boxes, Items H, I, and J, and complete Item K.

C. Enter the Social Security Number (SSN) of each employee to whom you paid wages during the quarter. If an employee does not have an SSN, leave the SSN box blank and take immediate steps to secure an SSN from the employee. Report the employee’s SSN to the EDD on a Tax and Wage Adjustment Form (DE 678) as soon as possible (refer to page 27).

D. Enter the full first name, middle initial (if any), and last name of each employee.

E. Enter the total amount of cash and noncash wages (including cents) paid to each employee during the quarter. Do not use dashes, commas, slashes, or dollar signs. Noncash wages include meals and lodging (refer to “Values of Meals and Lodging” on page 12). Generally, all wages paid to household employees are subject wages (refer to “What Does ‘Subject Wages’ Mean?” on page 11). Please call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886 if you have questions regarding subject wages.

F. Enter the total amount of all wages (including cents) paid during the quarter that are subject to Personal Income Tax (PIT), even if you did not withhold PIT. Generally, all wages paid to household employees are considered PIT wages (refer to “What Are Personal Income Tax Wages?” on page 11). If you provide meals and/or lodging for your household employees, refer to “Values of Meals and Lodging” on page 12. Employer of Household Worker(s) Annual Payroll Tax Return (DE 3HW)

Instructions for Paper Filers

NOTE: You must file this form even if you did not have payroll.

No Wages Paid This Year: Check this box if you did not pay any subject wages during the calendar year, enter zero (0) in Item H, and complete Item I.

No Longer Have Household Employees: Check this box if you no longer have household employees and this is your final return. Show the date you last had employees.

Revert to Quarterly Reporting: Check this box if you have paid total accumulated wages of $20,000 or more this year. Enter the date that total wages paid exceeded $20,000.

Complete all items on the DE 3HW as follows:

A. Enter the total amount of cash and noncash wages (including cents) that you paid to employees during the year. Noncash wages include meals and lodging (refer to “Values of Meals and Lodging” on page 12). This amount should be equal to the total of all subject wages reported on Item H of your quarterly DE 3BHW forms (page 18) filed for the year.

B. The Unemployment Insurance (UI) tax is paid by employers on cash and noncash wages paid to each employee in each year up to the UI taxable wage limit. Refer to inside cover for rates and taxable wage limits. Your UI tax rate will be given to you when you register with the EDD or become subject to UI tax. Each December, the EDD will notify you of your UI tax rate and the taxable wage limit for the upcoming year by sending a Notice of Contribution Rates and Statement of UI Reserve Account (DE 2088).

Box B1. Enter the total UI cash and noncash wages for the year, up to the UI taxable wage limit per employee for the calendar year.

Box B2. UI tax rate.

Box B3. Multiply Box B1 by Box B2, and enter the result in Box B3.

The following example shows how to compute UI taxes (for illustrative purposes only):

NOTE: Examples were created using 2012 rates. Refer to inside cover for 2013 rates.

Example: Total UI taxable wages for the year are $14,000. The UI tax rate is 3.4 percent (.034).

\[
\begin{align*}
\text{UI Taxable Wages} & \quad $14,000 \\
\times \quad \text{UI Tax Rate} & \quad \times \quad .034 \\
\text{UI Taxes Due} & \quad $476.00
\end{align*}
NOTE:

1. If, after paying $1,000 in cash wages in one or more quarters in a calendar year, you begin paying your employees less than $1,000 in the following quarters, you must continue sending UI, ETT, and SDI tax payments to the EDD through December 31 of the following year. Once you exceed the threshold on wages, you continue to be subject through the following year.

2. The wages in Boxes B1 and C1 of your DE 3HW should be the same total wages on which you pay UI taxes. If any of your employees were paid more than $7,000 during the year, the wages in Item A will be more than the wages in Boxes B1 and C1.

C. The Employment Training Tax (ETT) rate is set by law at 0.1 percent (.001) on the same wages that are in Box B1. However, if you have a negative UI reserve account balance on June 30, you will not be required to pay ETT the following calendar year. The annual DE 2088 will show whether your rate is zero (0) or 0.1 percent (.001).

Box C1. Enter the total wages from Box B1.
Box C2. ETT rate.
Box C3. Multiply Box C1 by Box C2, and enter the result in Box C3.

The following example shows how to compute the ETT (for illustrative purposes only):

NOTE: Examples were created using 2012 rates. Refer to inside cover for 2013 rates.

Example:
Total ETT taxable wages for the year are $14,000.
The ETT rate is 0.1 percent (.001).

\[
\begin{align*}
\text{ETT Taxable Wages} & \quad $14,000 \\
\times \quad & \quad \text{ETT Rate} \\
\times \quad & \quad .001 \\
\text{ETT Due} & \quad $14.00
\end{align*}

Employer of Household Worker(s) Annual Payroll Tax Return (DE 3HW)

Instructions for Paper Filers (Continued)

D. The State Disability Insurance (SDI) tax is deducted from each employee’s wages and held by you until the DE 3HW is filed. Refer to inside cover for the 2013 SDI rate and taxable wage limit. The SDI tax is withheld from cash and noncash wages, including meals and lodging (refer to page 12), paid to each employee during the year up to the SDI taxable wage limit. Since annual household employers are limited to $20,000 or less total wages annually, your SDI taxable wages will be the same as total wages paid (Line A). If you did not withhold SDI from your employees’ wages, please refer to page 25. If you have paid more than $20,000 in accumulated wages to your household employees during the year, please refer to page 28 for information on how to change from an annual household employer to a quarterly household employer.

Box D1. Enter the total SDI cash and noncash wages for the year, up to SDI taxable wage limit per employee for the calendar year.

Box D2. SDI tax rate.

Box D3. Multiply Box D1 by Box D2, and enter the result in Box D3.

The following example shows how to compute SDI taxes (for illustrative purposes only):

NOTE: Examples were created using 2012 rates. Refer to inside cover for 2013 rates.

Example: Total SDI taxable wages for the year are $19,000.

The SDI tax rate is 1.0 percent (.01)

\[
\begin{align*}
\text{SDI Taxable Wages} & \quad \text{$19,000} \\
\times \quad \text{SDI Tax Rate} & \quad \times \quad 0.01 \\
\text{SDI Taxes Due} & \quad \text{$190.00}
\end{align*}

NOTE: If, after paying $750 in cash wages in one or more quarters in a calendar year, you begin paying your employees less than $750 in the following quarters, you must continue withholding SDI taxes from your employees’ wages through December 31 of the following year. The SDI withholdings must be sent to the EDD once a year. Once you exceed the threshold on wages, you continue to be subject through the following year.

E. As an employer of household workers, you are not required to withhold California Personal Income Tax (PIT) from an employee’s wages. However, you and your employee(s) may voluntarily agree to withhold PIT. If PIT is withheld, enter the total amount withheld. The total withheld should equal the amount reported on the employee’s Wage and Tax Statement, (Form W-2). This amount should also equal the total of all PIT withheld reported on Item J of your quarterly DE 3BHW forms (page 17) filed for the year.

F. Enter the total of Boxes B3, C3, D3, and Item E.
Employer Paid Taxes for Employees

If you pay the State Disability Insurance (SDI) tax without deducting it from your employees’ wages, the amount of the SDI you paid is considered an increase in the employees’ wages and should be included in subject wages for UI, ETT, and SDI purposes.

If you pay Social Security and/or Medicare without deducting them from your employees’ wages, the amount you paid is not considered an increase in the employees’ wages and should not be included in subject wages for UI, ETT, or SDI purposes.

If you and your employee have agreed to withhold PIT, the amount of Social Security, Medicare, or SDI that you paid without deducting from the employee’s wages should be included in PIT wages and used to calculate the PIT withholding amount.

For assistance in calculating subject wages and PIT wages under these circumstances, refer to Information Sheet: Social Security/Medicare/SDI Taxes Paid by an Employer (DE 231Q). To obtain the DE 231Q, access the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de231q.pdf, or call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886.

No Longer Paying Wages

If you stop employing people to work in your home and do not intend to hire anyone in the future, you must notify the EDD by submitting a final DE 3BHW and DE 3HW with payment of any taxes due within ten days.

If you plan to employ people to work in your home in the future but do not have payroll this quarter, mark “No Payroll This Quarter” (Item B) on the DE 3BHW and submit it to the EDD. This report must be filed even if no wages were paid in the quarter.

Electronic filers: Go online at https://eddservices.edd.ca.gov and follow the simple online instructions in our e-Services for Business to submit these reports.

Paper filers: Obtain these forms by accessing the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Forms_and_Publications.htm, or use the Internet Order Form at www.edd.ca.gov/Forms/default.asp.

When to Change From an Annual Household Employer to a Quarterly Household Employer

If your total accumulated wages exceed $20,000 during the year, you must notify the EDD immediately. Please call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886, and an EDD representative will assist you in changing to a quarterly taxpayer.

As a quarterly household employer, you will no longer prepare a DE 3BHW and DE 3HW. Each quarter, you will complete a Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (DE 9) and a Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (Continuation) (DE 9C). You will begin sending a Payroll Tax Deposit (DE 88) coupon along with your tax payment to the EDD at least quarterly. If you are required to change to a quarterly household employer mid-year, you must file a DE 3HW to cover the quarters you were an annual household employer and a DE 9 and DE 9C for the quarters you were a quarterly household employer. In the following years, you will no longer file a DE 3HW.

For an explanation of the responsibilities of a quarterly household employer, please refer to the “Quarterly Household Employers” section of this guide, beginning on page 29. This section includes examples of completed forms and instructions for completing the forms.
QUARTERLY HOUSEHOLD EMPLOYERS

Overview

If your total annual accumulated wages (both cash and noncash) are more than $20,000 or if you do not elect to become an annual household employer, you must file wage reports quarterly and pay taxes at least quarterly.

Note: For information on how to elect to become an annual household employer, refer to page 15.

As a quarterly household employer, you must submit the following forms:

- Payroll Tax Deposit (DE 88).

The EDD offers a full range of online services for filing and paying state payroll taxes. Refer to the e-Services for Business section on page 13.

Samples of completed forms are provided on the following pages: 31, 35, and 39, respectively.

Need assistance in completing the paper Payroll Tax Deposit (DE 88) coupon? The EDD offers a new online course, “How to Complete a Payroll Tax Deposit (DE 88/DE 88ALL),” to assist you. For additional information about this course and other online courses, go to www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Web_Based_Seminars.htm.

NOTE: For years 2010 and prior, the Quarterly Wage and Withholding Report (DE 6) and the Annual Reconciliation Statement (DE 7) must be filed.
Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (DE 9)

Overview

Purpose: Quarterly household employers use the Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (DE 9) to reconcile payroll tax payments and total subject wages reported for the quarter. You must submit a DE 9 AND a Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (Continuation) (DE 9C) each quarter. If your DE 9 shows payroll taxes due, prepare a Payroll Tax Deposit (DE 88) and include the correct payment quarter. Send the DE 88 with the amount due to the EDD using the preprinted DE 88 envelope.

Do not mail the DE 88 and payment in the same envelope with the DE 9 as a delay in processing of the return and/or payment may occur. NOTE: Mailing payments with the DE 9 form delays payment processing and may result in erroneous penalty and interest charges.

K. Sign the form, enter your title, phone number, and the date signed.

IMPORTANT:

• The person preparing this form or the person responsible for the information on this form must sign Item K.

• Employers must file both the DE 9 and the DE 9C each quarter.

• Your Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (DE 9) and Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (Continuation) (DE 9C) must be mailed together in a separate envelope from your Payroll Tax Deposit (DE 88/DE 88ALL) coupon and payment.

How to Calculate Taxable Wages

Unemployment Insurance (UI) tax and Employment Training Tax (ETT) are calculated up to the UI taxable wage limit of each employee’s wages per year and are paid by the employer. The State Disability Insurance (SDI) tax is calculated up to the SDI taxable wage limit of each employee’s wages in 2013 and is withheld from the employee’s wages.

NOTE: Examples were created using 2012 UI and SDI taxable wage limits.

Example: An employer has two employees, Jane and John (for illustrative purposes only).

In the first quarter, Jane is paid $10,000 and John is paid $6,000. The employer pays Unemployment Insurance (UI) tax and Employment Training Tax (ETT) taxes on $7,000 of Jane’s wages and all of John’s wages. The employer will not pay UI and ETT taxes for Jane for the remainder of the year since she has reached the UI taxable wage limit. State Disability Insurance (SDI) is withheld from both employees’ total wages.

First Quarter

In the second quarter, Jane is paid $35,000 and John is paid $500. The employer pays UI and ETT on John’s total wages since the UI taxable wage limit has not been met. The employer withholds SDI from both employees’ total wages since neither has reached the SDI taxable wage limit.

In the third quarter, Jane is paid $35,000 and John is paid $8,000. The employer pays UI and ETT on $500 of John’s wages; he has now reached the UI taxable wage limit. The employer withholds SDI from both employees’ total wages since neither has reached the SDI taxable wage limit.

In the fourth quarter, Jane is paid $37,000 and John is paid $15,000. The employer only withholds SDI taxes on $15,585 of Jane’s wages since she reached the SDI limit. The employer withholds SDI from John’s total wages since he was not paid more than the SDI taxable wage limit in the calendar year.

How to Compute

State Disability Insurance (SDI) Withholding

The SDI tax rate (which includes Paid Family Leave) for calendar year 2013 is available on the inside cover. The SDI tax is withheld from all cash and noncash wages paid to each employee in 2013 up to the SDI taxable wage limit. Noncash wages include meals and lodging (refer to “Values of Meals and Lodging” tables on page 12). If you do not withhold SDI from your employees’ wages, refer to NOTE 2 below.

If the SDI tax is withheld from your employees’ wages, a Payroll Tax Deposit (DE 88) coupon must be sent to the EDD at least once each quarter, and be postmarked or received by the dates listed in the table on page 44. If you withhold more than $500 in Personal Income Tax (PIT) from your employees during a quarter, please call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886 to determine when to send your SDI and PIT payment to the EDD.

Example: Total SDI taxable wages for the quarter are $13,000 (for illustrative purposes only). Examples were created using 2012 rates. Refer to inside cover for 2013 rates.

\[
\begin{align*}
\text{SDI Taxable Wages} & \quad \text{$13,000} \\
\times \quad \text{SDI Tax Rate} & \quad \times \quad 0.010 \\
\text{SDI Taxes Due} & \quad \text{$130.00} \text{ (Enter this amount in Box C)} \end{align*}

NOTE:

1. If, after paying $750 in cash wages in one or more quarters in a calendar year, you begin paying your employees less than $750 in the following quarters, you must continue withholding SDI taxes from your employees’ wages through December of the following year. Once you exceed the threshold on wages, you continue to be subject through the following year.

2. If you pay the SDI tax without deducting it from your employees’ wages, the amount of SDI you paid is considered an increase in the employees’ wages and must be used to calculate Unemployment Insurance (UI), Employment Training Tax (ETT), and SDI withholding. The additional amount must also be included as PIT wages and used to calculate the PIT withholding amount if you and any of your employees have agreed to withhold PIT.

If you pay Social Security and/or Medicare taxes without deducting them from your employees’ wages, these payments are not considered an increase in the employees’ wages for UI, ETT, and SDI but are an increase in PIT wages that must be used to calculate the PIT withholding amount.

For assistance in calculating subject wages and PIT wages under these circumstances, refer to our Information Sheet: Social Security/Medicare/SDI Taxes Paid by an Employer (DE 231Q). To obtain the DE 231Q, please access the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de231q.pdf. You may call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886 to order the DE 231Q or if you have any questions.
How to Compute

Unemployment Insurance (UI) Tax and Employment Training Tax (ETT)

If you pay cash wages of $1,000 or more in one quarter to household workers, in addition to withholding State Disability Insurance (SDI), you must pay UI tax and ETT at the following rates:

- The UI tax rate for new employers or those newly subject to UI is 3.4 percent (.034). Your tax rate will be given to you when you register with the EDD or become subject to UI. Your tax rates (UI, ETT, and SDI) are updated once each year with a Notice of Contribution Rates and Statement of UI Reserve Account (DE 2088), mailed to you in December, showing the rates for the upcoming year. The UI tax is paid on cash and noncash wages paid to each employee in 2013 up to the UI taxable wage limit. Refer to the inside cover for the 2013 UI taxable wage limit. Noncash wages include meals and lodging (refer to “Values of Meals and Lodging” on page 12).

- The ETT rate is set by law at 0.1 percent (.001) on your UI taxable wages. However, if you have a negative UI reserve account balance on June 30, you will not be required to pay ETT the following calendar year. The annual DE 2088 will show whether your rate is zero (0) or 0.1 percent (.001).

The UI tax and ETT amounts are paid by the employer, and are not withheld from employees' wages.

Your payroll taxes and a Payroll Tax Deposit (DE 88) coupon must be submitted to the EDD each quarter. File online at e-Services for Business at https://eddservices.edd.ca.gov. If you do not file online you may file by paper method. All payments must be received or postmarked by the dates listed on the table on page 44.

Example: Total UI taxable wages for the quarter are $12,000 (for illustrative purposes only). The UI tax rate is 3.4 percent (.034). The ETT rate is 0.1 percent (.001). Examples were created using standard starting rates, your UI rate may differ.

¹ If you withhold more than $500 in PIT, please call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886 to determine the correct due date of your tax payment.

² If the deposit due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, the due date is extended to the next business day.

³ For household employers who have paid $1,000 or more in wages in a calendar quarter, a deposit of Unemployment Insurance and Employment Training Tax not previously paid is also due each quarter by these due dates.

NOTE: When your DE 88 is mailed to the EDD, the postmark date is used to determine if your payment is timely. Penalty and interest will be charged on each late payroll tax payment.
2013 Due Dates and Delinquency Dates (Continued)

Withholding Deposits

To ensure timely settlement of your electronic payments, please note:

- An Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Automated Clearing House (ACH) debit transaction must be completed before 3 p.m., Pacific Time, on or before the last timely date to ensure a timely settlement date.

- EFT ACH credit transactions are processed based on individual bank requirements. Ask your bank what day you should report your payment to ensure a timely settlement date.

- For any quarter that you do not have wages to report, you must check the “No Wages Paid this Quarter” (Item A) on the DE 9 and the “No Payroll” box (Item C) on the DE 9C and send the forms to the EDD. If you have any questions, please call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886.

When written permission is obtained from an employee, you are authorized to adjust any over or underwithheld California PIT from the employee if the adjustment is made within the same calendar year and before the IRS Wage and Tax Statement (Form W-2) is issued.

Overwithheld SDI and/or PIT must be credited or refunded to your employee before you can take a credit or receive a refund from the EDD. You should obtain a receipt from the employee whenever a credit adjustment or repayment of overwithheld tax is made.

NOTE: A claim for credit or refund must be filed within three years of the delinquent date for the quarter being adjusted.

DE 9ADJ (1-11) (INTERNET)
No Longer Paying Wages

If you stop employing people to work in your home and do not intend to hire anyone in the future, you must send the EDD a final Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (DE 9) and a Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (Continuation) (DE 9C) (enter the last date you paid wages), and Payroll Tax Deposit (DE 88) coupon with payment of any taxes within ten days. If you plan to employ people to work in your home in the future but do not have payroll this quarter, mark “No Wages Paid this Quarter” (Item A) on the DE 9 and “No Payroll” (Item C) on the DE 9C and send the form to the EDD. This report must be filed even if no wages were paid in the quarter. To obtain these forms, access the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Forms_and_Publications.htm, order them using the EDD’s Internet Order Form at www.edd.ca.gov/Forms/, or call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886.

Registered employers may inactivate their account online using the EDD’s e-Services for Business at https://eddservices.edd.ca.gov.
All employers are required to report new employees to the New Employee Registry (NER). The NER assists California's Department of Child Support Services and Department of Justice in locating parents to collect delinquent child support payments. Employers must also report the actual start-of-work date (not the date hired) for each newly hired employee so that the NER data can be cross-matched to the Unemployment Insurance (UI) benefit file. This will result in the early detection and prevention of UI benefit overpayments.

How to Obtain: New employers receive a Report of New Employee(s) (DE 34) as part of their new employer package from the EDD. To obtain additional DE 34 forms, access the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de34.pdf. You may also file online using the EDD’s e-Services for Business at https://eddservices.edd.ca.gov or contact the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886.

When Due: You must report all newly hired employees (refer to “Who Are Household Employees?” on page 8) within 20 days of the start-of-work date. If an employee returns to work after a layoff or leave of absence and is required to complete a new IRS Employee’s Withholding Allowance Certificate (Form W-4), you must report the employee as a new hire. If the returning employee was not formally terminated or removed from payroll records, you do not need to report the employee as a new hire.

The following information must be included when reporting new employees:

<th>Employer Information</th>

<tr>

<tr>
<td>Contact Person</td>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Refer to sample DE 34 on page 53.

Filing an Informal Report
If you are not able to obtain a DE 34 form by the due date, file an informal report or a copy of the employee’s Form W-4 to avoid penalty and interest charges. Your informal report should include all the information listed in the above table.

Mail or fax your new employee information to:

Employment Development Department
Document Management Group, MIC 96
P.O. Box 997016
West Sacramento, CA 95799-7016
Fax: 916-319-4400

NOTE: If the people who work in your home are independent contractors, you do not need to report them to the EDD (refer to “Who Are Household Employees?” on page 8). The requirement for businesses and government entities to report independent contractors does not apply to household employers.

If you are not sure if the people who work in your home are employees or independent contractors, please call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886 for assistance.

Registered employers may report new employees online using the EDD’s e-Services for Business at https://eddservices.edd.ca.gov.

As an employer, you are required to prepare a federal Wage and Tax Statement (Form W-2) for each of your employees. You must provide your employees with their 2013 Form W-2 by January 31, 2014.* Prepare the Form W-2 on the federal/state four-part paper form.

If you need information on Form W-2 reporting requirements, refer to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Employer’s Tax Guide (Publication 15, Circular E). For federal instructions on completing Form W-2, refer to IRS Instructions for Forms W-2 and W-3. To obtain these publications, access the IRS website at www.irs.gov or call IRS at 800-829-3676.

In addition to the federal information required, you must include California Personal Income Tax (PIT) wages, PIT withheld, and State Disability Insurance (SDI) withheld in the following Form W-2 boxes:

| FORM W-2 |
|------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| Box 16 (State wages, tips, etc.) | California PIT wages |
| Box 17 (State income tax) | California PIT withheld (if any) |
| Box 19 (Local income tax) | The abbreviation “CASDI” and SDI withheld |

NOTE:

- If Box 19 has local taxes, use Box 14, Other. If no boxes are available, you are required to provide your employees with a separate written statement containing:
  - Name of household employer, address, Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN), and the EDD eight-digit employer account numbers.
  - The employee’s name, address, and Social Security Number.
  - The amount of SDI withheld and/or paid directly by you.

- If the wages were not subject to SDI, show “CASDI 0” (zero).

- If you paid SDI taxes without withholding the SDI from the employee’s wages, you should show the SDI taxes as if they were withheld and increase the amount you report according to the formula shown on the Information Sheet: Social Security/Medicare/SDI Taxes Paid By an Employer (DE 231Q). To obtain a DE 231Q, access the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de231q.pdf, or call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886.

Generally, the amount reported as California PIT wages on Form W-2 in Box 16 is the same as the federal wages (Box 1).

If you discover an error on a previously issued Form W-2, refer to the IRS publication Instructions for Forms W-2C and W-3C for instructions on completing an IRS Corrected Wage and Tax Statement (Form W-2C).

Send Forms W-2 and Forms W-2C to your employees and the Social Security Administration. Do not send the “state” copies of Forms W-2 and Forms W-2C to the State of California (the EDD or Franchise Tax Board).

* Employers failing to provide a Form W-2 to each employee, or who furnish a false or fraudulent statement, are subject to a penalty of fifty dollars ($50) for each such failure as imposed under Section 13052 of the California Unemployment Insurance Code (CUIC). Employers may also be subject to an additional penalty for failure to file informational returns (Form W-2 or Form 1099-MISC) to misclassified employees as provided under Section 13052.5 of the CUIC. The amount of the penalty is determined based upon the unreported remuneration for personal services multiplied by the maximum rate as provided under Section 17041 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Contact the EDD’s Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886 for assistance.
Earned Income Tax Credit Information Act

Effective January 1, 2008, all employers are required to notify all of their employees of the federal Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC).

Employers who are subject to and required to provide Unemployment Insurance to their employees must provide EITC notification to the employee by either handing it directly to the employee or mailing it to the employee’s last known address. Posting of this information on an employee bulletin board will not satisfy the notification requirement.

The notification shall be provided at the same time or within one week before or after, that the employer provides the employee with an annual wage summary, including, but not limited to, a Form W-2 or a Form 1099. The notice shall include instructions on how to obtain any notices available from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for this purpose, including, but not limited to, the IRS Notice 797, or any successor notice or form, or any notice created by you, as long as it contains substantially the same language as the notice below.

“Based on your annual earnings, you may be eligible to receive the earned income tax credit from the federal government. The earned income tax credit is a refundable federal income tax credit for low-income working individuals and families. The earned income tax credit has no effect on certain welfare benefits. In most cases, earned income tax credit payments will not be used to determine eligibility for Medicaid, supplemental security income, food stamps, low-income housing, or most temporary assistance for needy families’ payments. Even if you do not owe federal taxes, you must file a tax return to receive the earned income tax credit. Be sure to fill out the earned income tax credit form in the federal income tax return booklet. For information regarding your eligibility to receive the earned income tax credit, including information on how to obtain the IRS Notice 797, or any other necessary forms and instructions, contact the Internal Revenue Service by calling 1-800-829-3676 or through its website at www.irs.gov.”

Employers are required to keep payroll records for at least four years. If you believe that you are not a subject employer or your employees are exempt, state law requires that you maintain records of payments made to people who provide household services for at least eight years in case of an employment tax audit.

Your records must provide a true and accurate account of all workers (employed, no longer employed, or on a leave of absence, and independent contractors) and all payments made. Records must include the following information for each worker:

- Worker’s:
  - Full name (first name, middle initial, and last name).
  - Social Security Number.
- Date hired, rehired, or returned to work after a temporary layoff.
- Last date services were performed.
- Place of work.
- Money paid:
  - Dates and amounts of payment.
  - Pay period covered.
  - Cash or cash value of in-kind wages (such as meals, lodging, bonuses, and gifts) (Refer to “Values of Meals and Lodging” on page 12).
- The amounts withheld from employee wages.
- Disbursement records showing payments to workers.
- Other information necessary to determine payments to workers.

You may use any payroll record that provides the information listed above. A sample Employee Earnings Record is provided on page 57.

If you have any questions about the records you must keep, please refer to Information Sheet: Employment Tax Audit Process (DE 231TA). This form is available on the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de231ta.pdf. You may call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886.

Your Reserve Account

If you pay $1,000 or more in cash wages to household employees during a calendar quarter, you are required to pay Unemployment Insurance (UI) tax and Employment Training Tax (ETT) on each employee’s wages up to the UI taxable wage limit, each calendar year. Your UI reserve account is a record of the UI taxes you have paid (credits) and the UI benefits that the EDD has paid (charges) to your former employees who were found eligible to receive UI benefits or who qualified for reduced UI benefits when working less than full-time for you. Your UI reserve account is a “paper” account for recordkeeping purposes and has no cash value. The difference between the credits and charges is the reserve account balance, which may be positive or negative. Your account balance is used only to determine your annual UI tax rate. If you have a negative reserve account balance as of June 30, you will not have to pay ETT the following calendar year.
Notices

When your former employee ("claimant") applies for Unemployment Insurance (UI) benefits, the last employer reported by the claimant will receive a Notice of UI Claim Filed (DE 1101C/Z or DE 1101ER). Only the last employer of record will receive this notice to advise them that the claimant has filed a UI claim, and it includes the reason the claimant stated for no longer working.

If you have any information that would affect the claimant’s eligibility for UI benefits, please complete the form and return it to the EDD within 10 days of the date the notice was mailed to you. If you believe that your UI reserve account should not be charged for the benefits, it is important that you provide information by the required deadline explaining why the claimant was terminated or the reasons the claimant gave for voluntarily quitting. The DE 1101C/Z and DE 1101ER includes instructions that explain how to complete the form. Your information is needed to gather relevant facts that will assist the EDD in determining if the claimant is eligible to receive UI benefits. Failure to respond timely may result in an increase to your UI tax rate.

If you respond to the notice within the legally required 10 days of the notice date and provide eligibility information, the EDD will send you a Notice of Determination and/or Ruling (DE 1080EZ). A ruling advises you whether or not your UI reserve account will be charged for UI benefits if the claimant is found eligible based on the reason for separation from your employment. If you fail to respond to the Notice of UI Claim Filed (DE 1101C/Z or DE 1101ER) or respond untimely, you are not entitled to a determination and/or a ruling. However, if you respond untimely and provide the reason you are submitting the eligibility information untimely, the EDD will determine if you had good cause for not submitting your response timely. If there is a finding of good cause, you will be entitled to receive a notice of determination or ruling. Also, if you respond untimely with eligibility information, the EDD will conduct a determination of eligibility with the claimant regardless of whether you are entitled to a notice of determination and/or a ruling.

If the EDD finds that a claimant is eligible to receive UI benefits, a Notice of Wages Used for Unemployment Insurance (UI) Claim (DE 1545) is mailed to all base-period (refer to page 68) employers after the first benefit check is mailed to the claimant. If you are a base-period employer, you will receive a DE 1545. This notice will inform you of the wages used to establish the UI claim and the amount of potential charges to your UI reserve account. All or part of the benefits paid to the claimant may be charged to your UI reserve account.

If you believe that your UI reserve account should not be charged for the benefits, it is important that you complete the form and return it by the required deadline to the EDD as indicated on the form. The DE 1545 includes instructions on how to complete the form. You will need to explain why your account should not be charged for the UI benefits. If you previously responded to a DE 1101C/Z or DE 1101ER for the same employee concerning the same separation or other issue, you do not need to return the DE 1545. However, if you know of new eligibility issues, then you must report them to the EDD because they may affect the claimant’s eligibility for benefits. Please complete the DE 1545 and return it within 15 calendar days from the mail date of the notice. If the wage information is incorrect, submit a corrected copy of the wages within 20 days from the mail date of the notice.
When a claimant is approved for the California Training Benefits (CTB) program, a Notice of Potential Increased Liability for Training Extension Benefits (DE 1545TE) is mailed to all base-period employers. This notice will inform you of the maximum amount of potential benefits payable, including training extension benefits, and the amount of potential charges to your UI reserve account. If you believe that your UI reserve account should not be charged for the training benefits, your protest must be mailed by the date indicated on the form. The response should provide information explaining why the claimant should not be eligible for CTB under the California Unemployment Insurance Code Section cited. If the DE 1545TE indicates that you previously received a favorable ruling, your account will not be charged, and no response will be necessary. To maintain the integrity of the UI program, the EDD investigates cases of potential imposter fraud and identity theft. As part of our investigation, you may receive a Request for Additional Information (DE 1326ER) asking you to validate information provided to us by an individual who has filed a claim for UI benefits. The DE 1326ER is mailed to the last employer and base-period employers to request additional identifying information to validate the identity of the individual. Your prompt response to the DE 1326ER will protect your employer account from charges if the determination of eligibility results in a disqualification, and will assist the EDD in maintaining the integrity of the UI Fund.

Additional information on protecting your employer account from fraudulent Unemployment Insurance claims, protecting your employees, and fighting imposter fraud can be found on the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/Unemployment/Fraud_Prevention.htm.

NOTE: You should keep copies of all your responses to the EDD notices for your records.

Notices of Determination, Ruling, or Modification

You will receive a notice from the EDD in response to the information you reported regarding a claimant’s eligibility for UI benefits on the DE 1101C/Z, DE 1101ER, or DE 1545. Depending on the specific circumstances involved, you will receive one of the following notices:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Notice</th>
<th>Purpose</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| DE 1080EZ:
  - Notice of Determination
    Sent to an employer who responds timely to a DE 1101C/Z, DE 1101ER, or DE 1545, or who submits timely correspondence with claimant eligibility information other than information regarding a voluntary quit or discharge. | |
| DE 1080EZ:
  - Notice of Determination/Ruling
    Sent to an employer who responds timely to a DE 1101C/Z or DE 1101ER with information regarding a voluntary quit or discharge. This notice informs the employer whether or not their reserve account will be charged for UI benefits paid. | |
| DE 1080M:
  - Notice of Ruling
    Sent to an employer who responds timely to a DE 1545 with information regarding separation(s) that occurred within the base period. This notice informs the employer whether or not their reserve account will be charged for UI benefits paid. | |
| DE 1080M:
  - Notice of Modification
    Sent to an employer who previously received a DE 1080EZ stating that the claimant was disqualified from receiving UI benefits. The purpose of this form is to inform the employer that the claimant’s disqualification period has ended and the claimant has met the criteria required to receive UI benefits. This notice does not change the original ruling issued to the employer. | |
Appeal Rights

You have the right to file an appeal if you do not agree with the EDD’s decision about:

- Former employee’s eligibility to receive UI benefits.
- Charges made to your UI reserve account due to paid UI benefits.

You must send your written appeal to the EDD within 20 days of the mail date of the Notice of Determination and/or Ruling (DE 1080EZ). The EDD will send you an acknowledgment of receipt and registration of your appeal with the phone number for the Office of Appeal hearing the case. The Office of Appeal will schedule a hearing with an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). Both you and your former employee will be notified of the date, time, and place of the hearing at least ten days before the hearing date. If you are filing an appeal to a Notice of Ruling (DE 1080EZ), the employee is not considered a party to the proceeding and is not notified of the hearing. The ALJ will conduct a hearing and give all interested parties the opportunity to present their evidence. The ALJ will consider the facts presented at the hearing and issue a written decision that is mailed to all concerned parties.

If you do not agree with the ALJ’s decision, you may appeal to the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board (CUIAB). The CUIAB reviews appeals to decisions rendered by ALJs. Both the CUIAB and the ALJs operate impartially and independently of the EDD.

The CUIAB provides the following publications to assist in filing an appeal and preparing for an administrative hearing:

- Office of Appeals Tax Hearing Information Pamphlet (DE 6412)
- Twenty-seven Ways to Avoid Losing Your Unemployment Appeal (DE 1432)
- Unemployment Appeals – A Guide for Claimants, Employers, and Their Representatives (DE 1434)
- Appeals Procedure (DE 1433)

For copies of these publications, visit the State of California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board website at www.cuiab.ca.gov/forms.shtm or write to:

Statement of Charges to Reserve Account (DE 428T)

Each October, the annual Statement of Charges to Reserve Account (DE 428T) is mailed to you. This statement notifies you of the Unemployment Insurance (UI) benefit charges and credits to your reserve account from July 1 through June 30 of the previous fiscal year. Charges are itemized and based on the UI benefits paid to your former employees. Charges to your reserve account may increase your UI contribution rate for the next calendar year. It is important to review your statement carefully and respond timely if you do not agree with the charges. You have 60 days from the mail date on your statement to protest, in writing, any charges you believe are incorrect. An extension of up to 60 days may be granted for “good cause” (refer to page 70) if your request is submitted before the protest deadline. When filing your protest, you must include your EDD eight-digit employer account number, the claimant’s name, Social Security Number, claim date, the dollar amount, and the specific reason for protesting. Protests with missing information will be returned. If you have address changes and/or agent updates, inform the EDD immediately in order to receive your DE 428T timely.

For further information, refer to the Explanation and Instruction Sheet (DE 428C) included with your DE 428T or call the Taxpayer’s Assistance Center at 888-745-3886. The DE 428C is also available on the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de428c.pdf.

Notice of Contribution Rates and Statement of UI Reserve Account (DE 2088)

The Unemployment Insurance (UI), Employment Training Tax (ETT), and State Disability Insurance (SDI) tax rates and taxable wage limits may change each year. Each December, the EDD sends you a Notice of Contribution Rates and Statement of UI Reserve Account (DE 2088) to notify you of your tax rates and taxable wage limits for the upcoming year. Your 2013 notice will show the items used to determine your UI rate and the balance in your UI reserve account as of July 31, 2012.

Any item on the DE 2088 can be protested except the ETT and SDI tax rates, which are set by law. Your protest must be filed in writing within 60 days of the mail date shown on the notice. An extension of up to 60 days may be granted for “good cause” (refer to page 70) if your request is submitted before the protest deadline. When filing your protest, you must include your EDD employer account number, the specific item(s) being protested, and why you are protesting.

Please mail your protest to:

Employment Development Department
Rate Management Group, MIC 4
P.O. Box 826880
Sacramento, CA 94280-0001

For further information, refer to the Explanation of the Notice of Contribution Rates and Statement of UI Reserve Account (DE 2088) for the period of January 1, 2013, to December 31, 2013 (DE 2088C) included with the DE 2088, or call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 888-745-3886. The DE 2088C is also available on the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de2088c.pdf.
The State Disability Insurance (SDI) Program provides Disability Insurance (DI) and Paid Family Leave (PFL) benefits to eligible workers experiencing a loss of wages. The SDI Program is funded by mandatory payroll deductions from employee wages.

Disability Insurance

Disability Insurance is a component of the SDI Program. The DI benefits are paid to eligible California workers experiencing a loss of wages when they are unable to perform their regular or customary work due to non-work-related illness or injury, pregnancy, or childbirth.

Paid Family Leave

Paid Family Leave is a component of the SDI Program. The PFL program provides benefits to individuals who take time off from work to care for a seriously ill child, spouse, parent, or registered domestic partner or to bond with a new child.

Claim Notices

When an SDI claim is filed, the employer(s) shown on the application will receive a Notice to Employer of Disability Insurance Claim Filed (DE 2503). When a PFL claim is filed, the employer(s) will receive a Notice of Paid Family Leave (PFL) Claim Filed (DE 2503F). The employer shall provide information affecting the claimant’s eligibility and the form shall be completed and returned within two working days.

Because employees pay for DI and PFL, the filing of a DI or PFL program claim will not affect your Unemployment Insurance reserve account. Therefore, you will not be notified of the claimant’s eligibility for DI/PFL benefits for each occurrence of disability or family care leave as a result of the information supplied on the DE 2503 or DE 2503F.

If you have any questions about DI, please access the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/Disability/Disability_Insurance.htm or call DI Customer Service at 800-480-3287. If you have any questions about PFL, please access the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/Disability/Paid_Family_Leave.htm or call PFL Customer Service at 877-238-4373.

SDI Online

The SDI Online is an online system available to employers, claimants, physicians/practitioners, and voluntary plan third-party administrators for submission of Disability Insurance (DI) and Paid Family Leave (PFL) claim information. Employers can securely submit employee information (wages earned, last day worked, etc.) online. For more information on these online services, visit the SDI website at www.edd.ca.gov/disability.

Help Us Fight Fraud

The “underground economy” is comprised of those individuals and businesses that deal in cash and/or use other schemes to conceal their activities and their true tax liability from government licensing and taxing agencies. When businesses operate in the underground economy, they gain an unfair competitive advantage over businesses that comply with the law because they do not pay Workers’ Compensation and state and federal payroll taxes. This causes unfair competition in the marketplace and forces law-abiding businesses to pay higher taxes. To address this, the EDD, in partnership with several other governmental entities, follows up on leads and conducts on-site inspections of businesses throughout the state. To learn more about the EDD’s Underground Economy Operation (UEO) programs, visit the EDD’s website at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Underground_Economy_Operations.htm.

To report businesses that are paying workers undocumented cash payments, failing to carry Workers’ Compensation insurance, or not complying with labor and licensing laws, please download and complete an Underground Economy Operations Lead Referral/Complaint Form (DE 660 in English or DE 660/S/ in Spanish) available at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de660.pdf. - Request a waiver of penalty by showing “good cause” for filing a report or making a payment late.
- An impartial audit and a full explanation of our findings if your business is selected for an audit.

Account Number
The Employment Development Department (EDD) eight-digit employer account number assigned to each registered employer (for example, 000-0000-0). Always refer to your employer account number when communicating with the EDD. Omission of your account number may result in delays in processing payments, reporting documents, and correspondence.

Annual Household Employer
An employer, who pays $20,000 or less in wages in a calendar year and has elected to pay taxes annually, sends an Employer of Household Worker(s) Quarterly Report of Wages and Withholding (DE 3BHW) to the EDD quarterly. An Employer of Household Worker(s) Annual Payroll Tax Return (DE 3HW) is sent to the EDD with payment annually.

Base Period
The base period consists of four calendar quarters of three months each. When a base period begins and which calendar quarters are used depends on whether the claim is for Unemployment Insurance (UI) or State Disability Insurance (SDI) and on what date the claim begins. For Unemployment Insurance, there are two types of base periods: the Standard Base Period (see “Base Period Standard [UI]”) and the Alternate Base Period (see “Alternate Base Period [UI]”). There is an option of an alternate base period when the standard base period is not monetarily valid.

Base Period, Alternate (UI)
The UI Alternate Base Period is the last four completed calendar quarters prior to the beginning date of the claim. The Alternate Base Period can only be used if an individual cannot monetarily establish a valid UI claim with the Standard Base Period.

Base Period Employer
Employers who paid the earnings used to establish a UI claim and calculate an award.

Base Period, Standard (UI)
The UI Standard Base Period is the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters prior to the beginning date of the claim.

California Unemployment Insurance Code (CUIC)
The laws administering California’s Unemployment Insurance (UI), Employment Training Tax (ETT), State Disability Insurance (SDI), and Personal Income Tax (PIT) programs. The CUIC is available on the Internet at www.leginfo.ca.gov/calaw.html.

Cash Wages
Checks and currency paid to people who work for you.
Claim

An application for Unemployment Insurance (UI), Disability Insurance (DI) or Paid Family Leave (PFL) benefits:

- UI – The process that establishes a UI benefit year is called a new claim. The weekly Continued Claim Form (DE 4581) is used by claimants to certify for UI benefits during the benefit year. The EDD has two new methods that unemployed individuals may use to certify for UI benefits. Rather than filling out and submitting a paper DE 4581 form by mail, individuals may use the EDD’s Tele-CertSM to certify for benefits using the phone, or the EDD’s Web-CertSM to certify for UI benefits through the EDD’s website. After establishing a benefit year, a claimant may interrupt his or her claim for a variety of reasons, for example, the claimant could receive a disqualification, obtain intervening employment, or fail to continue to certify for benefits. The claimant may request to reopen an existing claim with a claim balance by filing an additional or reopened claim during the benefit year.

- DI – The application that establishes a DI benefit period is called a first claim. Subsequent certifications on an active DI claim are called continued claims. For each separate period of disability, a new first claim must be filed.

- PFL – The application that establishes a PFL benefit period is called a first claim. Subsequent certifications on that claim are called continued claims. For each separate period of family care leave, a new first claim must be filed.

Claimant

A wage earner who files a claim for UI, DI, or PFL benefits.

Contributions

Payroll tax payments for UI and ETT. The CUIC refers to taxes under its provisions as “contributions.” In this guide, “contributions” are generally referred to as “taxes.”

Disability Insurance (DI)

Benefits paid to eligible California workers experiencing a loss of wages when they are unable to perform their regular or customary work due to a non-work-related illness or injury, pregnancy, or childbirth. The DI is a component of the State Disability Insurance (SDI) Program and funded through SDI employee payroll withholdings.

Domestic Employee

Same as “Household Employee.”

Domestic Employer

Same as “Household Employer.”

Employment Training Tax (ETT)

A payroll tax of 0.1 percent (.001) used to fund job training for people likely to become unemployed or people who have been receiving UI benefits.

Subject Wages
Subject wages are used to determine Unemployment Insurance (UI), Disability Insurance (DI), and Paid Family Leave (PFL) benefits. The DI and PFL are components of SDI. Generally, all wages are considered subject wages, regardless of the UI and SDI taxable wage limits. Refer to inside front cover of this guide for current rates and taxable wage limits.

Taxable Wage Limit
The maximum amount of an employee’s wages that certain taxes apply to in a calendar year. For example, in 2013, the taxable wage limit for UI and ETT is $7,000. Therefore, an employer’s UI and ETT tax rate applies to the first $7,000 paid to each worker during the calendar year. The taxable wage limit for SDI is $100,880. Since the SDI tax rate is 1.0 percent (.01), the maximum 2013 SDI tax on any one employee is $1,008.80. There is no limit on the taxability of wages for California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withholding purposes.

Unemployment Insurance (UI)
Benefits paid to eligible California workers who are unemployed. Claimant(s) must meet specific eligibility requirements in order to receive benefits, which are funded by employer payroll taxes.

Voluntary DI Plan
California law allows employers or a majority of employees to apply to the EDD for approval of a Voluntary Plan (VP). This VP is for the payment of Disability Insurance (DI) and Paid Family Leave (PFL) benefits to their employees in lieu of the mandatory state plan coverage. Once a VP is approved, the employer is no longer required to send SDI withholdings to the EDD. Instead, the employer holds the contributions in a separate trust fund to pay DI or PFL benefits and approved expenses.

Wages
All payments made to people who work for you whether paid by check, cash, or the reasonable cash value of noncash payments, such as meals and lodging.

Withholding
Money deducted from your employees’ wages for State Disability Insurance (SDI) and California Personal Income Tax (PIT). You must send SDI and PIT withholdings to the EDD at least quarterly, unless you are an Annual Household Employer.
The EDD is an equal opportunity employer/program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. Requests for services, aids, and/or alternate formats need to be made by calling 888-745-3886 (voice). TTY users, please call 800-547-9565.
