

Claim for Paid Family Leave (PFL) Benefits

Paid Family Leave (PFL), a worker-funded program, provides benefits to eligible workers who have a full or partial loss of wages due to the need to care for a seriously ill family member, to bond with a new child, or to participate in a qualifying event as a result of your spouse, registered domestic partner, parent, or child's military deployment to a foreign country.

Please read instruction and information pages (A through F) before completing the enclosed forms.

For faster processing, file your claim using SDI Online (edd.ca.gov/disability/sdi\_online.htm). If you file online, do NOT mail this form to the Employment Development Department (EDD).

Do not complete this form if you are insured by a Voluntary Plan. Ask your employer for the proper forms.

If you cannot complete this form due to a disability, or if you are an authorized representative filing for benefits on behalf of an incapacitated or deceased claimant, call 1-877-238-4373.

HOW TO COMPLETE THIS FORM

- Use black ink only.
  - Type or write clearly within the boxes provided.
  - Enter your Social Security number on all pages of the claim form including attachments.
  - Do not fax the form.
  - Mail the completed form to the EDD in the envelope provided. Submit your claim no earlier than the first day your family leave begins but no later than 41 days after your family leave begins. You may lose benefits if your claim is late.
1. Complete ALL items on the enclosed "PART A – STATEMENT OF CLAIMANT" and sign box A25. Errors or missing information may cause your claim to be returned and delay payment. For box A8, the United States Postal Service will not deliver mail to a private mail box unless it is preceded by the initials "PMB."
  2. For bonding, also complete "PART B – BONDING CERTIFICATION" and enclose a copy of one of the documents listed in box B10. Do not complete Part B if you are filing to care for a family member.
  3. For care:
    - a. Have the care recipient complete and sign "PART C – STATEMENT OF CARE RECIPIENT." If the care recipient is a minor or incapacitated, an authorized representative may complete this part.
    - b. Have the treating physician/practitioner complete and sign "PART D – PHYSICIAN/ PRACTITIONER'S CERTIFICATION." Certification may be made by a licensed physician or practitioner authorized to certify to a patient's disability or serious health condition pursuant to California Unemployment Insurance Code, section 2708. If the care recipient is under the care of an accredited religious practitioner, obtain a Practitioner's Certification for Paid Family Leave (PFL) Benefits (DE 2502F) by calling 1-877-238-4373. Rubber stamp signatures are not accepted.
  4. For participating in a qualifying event, also complete "PART E – MILITARY ASSIST CERTIFICATION" and enclose a copy of one of the documents listed in Box E10.
  5. You should carefully decide the date you want your claim to begin because it may affect your benefit amount. See "YOUR BENEFIT AMOUNTS" on page B for information.
  6. Place the completed, signed form(s) in the envelope provided. Claims are generally processed within 14 days after the EDD receives a completed claim.
    - For bonding, a claim is complete when parts A and B, and supporting documents are received.
    - For care, a claim is complete when parts A, C, and D are received.
    - For military assist, a claim is complete when Parts A, E and supporting documentation are received.
  7. Keep these instructions and information pages (A through F) for future reference.

The EDD is an equal opportunity employer/program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. Requests for services, aids, and/or alternate formats need to be made by calling 1-866-490-8879 (voice). TTY users, please call the California Relay Service at 711.

BASIC ELIGIBILITY. PFL benefits can be paid only after you meet all of the following requirements:

- You must be unable to do your regular or customary work due to the need to provide care, to bond with a new child, or to participate in a qualifying event.
- You must be employed or actively looking for work at the time your family leave begins.
- If working, you must have lost wages because you were caring for a seriously ill family member, bonding with a new child, or participating in a qualifying event.
- You must have earned at least $300 from which State Disability Insurance (SDI) deductions were withheld during a previous period. (See “YOUR BENEFIT AMOUNTS” in the next column.)
- You must complete and mail a claim form within 41 days after the first day your family leave begins or you may lose benefits.

In addition, the following requirements must be met only if your PFL claim is to care for a seriously ill family member:

- The care recipient must be your child, parent, spouse, registered domestic partner, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, or parent-in-law.
- The care recipient must be under the continuing treatment or supervision of a licensed physician/practitioner or accredited religious practitioner while you are receiving benefits.
- The care recipient’s physician/practitioner must complete the certification that he/she requires care. If the care recipient is under the care of a religious practitioner, request a Practitioner’s Certification for Paid Family Leave (PFL) Benefits (DE 2502F) from the PFL office. Certification by a religious practitioner is acceptable only if the practitioner has been accredited by the EDD.

The following requirements must also be met only if your PFL claim is to bond with a new child:

- Your leave must take place within 12 months of the birth, adoption, or foster care placement of the child.
- The new child must be either your or your registered domestic partner’s biological child, adopted child, or foster child.

The following requirements must also be met only if your PFL claim is to assist a military family member:

- Provide proof of covered active duty or call to covered active duty documentation of the family member.
- Provide the qualifying event for leave and any supporting documentation. For example taking the leave to make financial or child care arrangements, or to attend an event sponsored by the military. A document supporting the reason for leave may be required.

INELIGIBILITY. You may apply for benefits even if you are not sure you are eligible. If you are found to be ineligible for all or part of a period claimed, you will be notified of the ineligible period and the reason. You may not be eligible for PFL benefits if:

- You are claiming or receiving Unemployment Insurance (UI) or Disability Insurance (DI) benefits.
- You are receiving workers’ compensation benefits at a weekly rate equal to or greater than the PFL rate.
- You are in jail, prison, or any other facility.

FRAUD. Under sections 1143, 2101, 2116, 2122, and 3305 of the California Unemployment Insurance Code, it is a violation to willfully make a false statement or knowingly conceal a material fact in order to obtain the payment of any benefits. Such violation is punishable by imprisonment, and/or by a fine not exceeding $20,000, or both. To detect and discourage fraud, the EDD continually monitors claims, vigorously investigates suspicious activity, and will seek restitution and conviction through prosecution.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- File your claim and other forms completely, accurately, and in a timely manner. If a form is late, include with the form a written explanation of the reason(s).

- Carefully read the instructions on this and all other forms you receive from PFL. If you are not sure what is required, contact the PFL office.
- Call or report in writing to the PFL office any:
  - o Change of address or telephone number.
  - o Return to part-time or full-time work.
  - o Need for care or bonding to stop.
  - o Income you receive.
- Include your name and Social Security number on all correspondence.

YOUR RIGHTS. Information about your claim will be kept confidential, except for the purposes allowed by law. California Civil Code, section 1798.34, gives you the right to inspect any personal records maintained about you by the EDD. Section 1798.35 permits you to request that the record be corrected if you believe it is not accurate, relevant, timely, or complete. Certain types of information that would generally be considered personal are exempt from disclosure to you: medical or psychological records where knowledge of the contents might be harmful to the subject (Civil Code, section 1798.40); records of active criminal, civil, or administrative investigations (Civil Code, section 1798.40). Additionally, the EDD will not disclose or provide copies of care recipients’ medical information to care providers. If you are denied access to records which you believe you have a right to inspect or if your request to amend your records is refused, you may file an appeal with the PFL office. You may request a copy of your file by calling the telephone number shown on your Notice of Computation (DE 429D).

You also have the right to appeal any disqualification, overpayment, or penalty. Specific instructions on how to appeal will be provided on any appealable document you receive.

YOUR BENEFIT AMOUNTS. Your claim begins on the date your family leave began. The EDD calculates your weekly benefit amount using your base period. The date your family leave began determines your base period. You may not change the beginning date of your claim or adjust your base period after you have established a valid claim.

This base period covers 12 months and is divided into four consecutive quarters. Your base period includes wages subject to SDI tax that you were paid approximately 5 to 18 months before your PFL claim begins. Your base period does not include wages being paid at the time family leave begins. For a PFL claim to be valid, you must have earned at least $300 in wages in the base period. Using the following, you may determine the base period.

- If your claim begins in January, February, or March, your base period is the 12 months ending last September 30.
- If your claim begins in April, May, or June, your base period is the 12 months ending last December 31.
- If your claim begins in July, August, or September, your base period is the 12 months ending last March 31.
- If your claim begins in October, November, or December, your base period is the 12 months ending last June 30.

The quarter of your base period in which you were paid the highest wages determines your weekly benefit amount.

- For more information about your benefit amount visit edd.ca.gov/Disability/Calculating\_PFL\_Benefit\_Payment\_Amounts.htm.

Contact the PFL office to inquire about benefits and to provide additional information if your situation fits any of these circumstances:

- If you do not have sufficient base period wages, you may be able to establish a valid claim by using a later beginning date.
- If you do not have enough base period wages and you were actively seeking work for 60 days or more in any quarter of the base period, you may be able to substitute wages paid in prior quarters.
- If during your base period you served in the military, received workers’ compensation benefits, or did not work because of a labor dispute.

HOW BENEFITS ARE PAID. When your claim is received, the PFL office will notify you of your weekly benefit amount and request any additional information needed to determine your eligibility. If you are eligible to receive benefits, payments are issued through the EDD Debit Card<sup>SM</sup>. You do not have to accept the EDD Debit Card. The EDD Debit Card is the fastest and most secure way to receive your benefits. You have an option to receive your benefit payments by check. The majority of claims are processed and payments issued within 14 days of receipt of a correctly completed claim.

Payments will be issued automatically. You will be paid 1/7 of your weekly benefit amount for each calendar day you are eligible unless benefits are reduced for some reason. See "BENEFIT REDUCTIONS" below.

BENEFIT REDUCTIONS. Under certain circumstances, you may not be eligible for a period of your claim or you may be entitled only to partial benefits. The EDD will determine whether or not benefits must be reduced. The types of income shown in the following list should be reported to the EDD even though they may not always affect your benefits. Failure to report your income could result in an overpayment, penalties, and/or a false statement disqualification.

- Sick leave pay
- Vacation pay
- Self-employment income
- Military pay
- Commissions
- Wages, including modified duty wages
- Residuals
- Bonuses
- Workers' compensation benefits
- Holiday pay
- Paid time off
- Part-time work income

In addition, your benefits may be reduced because of a prior Unemployment Insurance (UI), Disability Insurance (DI), or PFL overpayment or for delinquent court-ordered child or spousal support payments.

BENEFIT INTERRUPTION and TERMINATION. You will see "Notice of Exhaustion of Paid Family Leave Benefits" on the Electronic Benefit Payment (EBP) Notification (DE 2500E) when:

- You have been paid to the date the care recipient no longer requires care, as estimated by the care recipient's physician/practitioner. If the care recipient still requires care, complete and sign the PFL Claimant's Certification portion and ask the care recipient's physician/practitioner to complete and mail the Physician/Practitioner's Supplementary Certificate (DE 2525XFA).
- The care recipient has recovered. If you return to work and the care recipient again requires care, immediately submit a new claim form and report the dates you worked.

A Notice of Exhaustion of Paid Family Leave Benefits (DE 2525AF) will be issued when records show you have been paid the maximum amount of PFL benefits.

TAXABILITY of BENEFITS. PFL benefits are subject to federal income taxes and will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service.

Each person receiving PFL benefits will receive a 1099G form to include with his/her federal income tax return. PFL benefits are not subject to California income taxes. For 1099G inquiries, please call 1-800-795-0193.

OVERPAYMENT. An overpayment results when you receive PFL benefit payments you were not eligible to receive. Once the EDD determines that you were overpaid, the PFL office will contact you to explain the reason for your overpayment. It is important that you complete and return all information requests, as there are some instances when an overpayment can be waived. If it is determined that you were overpaid and the overpayment cannot be waived, you must repay this money. Payments issued after an overpayment is established may be reduced by 25 to 100 percent to collect your overpayment. You will receive a Notice of Overpayment Offset (DE 826), if your weekly benefit amount is reduced due to a DI, PFL, or UI overpayment.

DISQUALIFICATION. All available information will be considered before issuing a benefit payment or disqualifying your claim. Benefits will be paid only for the days to which you are eligible. If payment of benefits is denied or reduced, you will receive a written notice stating the reason for the disqualification.

If you deliberately report incorrect information or if you willfully omit or withhold information, false statement disqualifications of up to 92 days will be assessed. This may apply if you receive a payment that you know includes days for which you should not be paid, such as days after you returned to work. In addition, any resulting overpayment will be increased by a 30 percent penalty assessment.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Pregnancy. Mothers who are receiving DI benefits for a pregnancy-related disability and have delivered their child may be eligible for PFL benefits to bond with their new child. A Claim for Paid Family Leave (PFL) Benefits - New Mother (DE 2501FP) will automatically be sent to these new mothers at the end of their pregnancy-related DI claims.

Child Support Obligations. Contact the District Attorney's office administering the court order.

Spousal or Parental Support Obligations. Questions should be directed to the District Attorney's office administering the court order.

Job Training. Contact an America's Job Center of California<sup>SM</sup> (1-877-872-5627 or servicelocator.org) for services available in your area.

Seeking Work. Contact the EDD for information and assistance concerning employment opportunities and UI benefits.

- To register for employment, visit caljobs.ca.gov.
- To apply for UI benefits, visit edd.ca.gov/unemployment.

Death of Claimant. If a person receiving PFL benefits dies, an heir or legal representative should report the death to PFL. Benefits are payable through the date of death, if otherwise eligible.

Death of Care or Bonding Recipient. If the person for whom you are caring for or the child with whom you are bonding with dies, report the death to PFL at 1-877-238-4373. Benefits are payable through the date of death, if otherwise eligible.

Job Benefits and Protection Programs. The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and California Family Rights Act (CFRA) offer job protected leave to "eligible" employees for certain family and medical reasons. For more information about FMLA, call 1-866-487-9293 or visit dol.gov/whd/fmla. For more information on CFRA, call 1-800-884-1684 or visit dfeh.ca.gov.
